What ideas do you have for the youth ministry?

Circle one of the following that you would enjoy the most, and strike a single line through the one you would enjoy the least:

- Praying for and intentionally encouraging students
- Organizing and leading youth activities
- Mentoring students one-on-one
- Teaching at youth group or Sunday school
- _____

Some things for you to know:

Purpose Statement: The Hillside youth ministry exists to make disciples of Jesus Christ by helping students know God, serve others, and grow in the Community of Christ.

Leadership Commitments:

- Commitment levels vary depending on area of leadership involvement. For instance, Power Leaders have the least amount of committed time, while Impact Leaders and Core Leaders have the most amount of committed time. For more details, please refer to the “Generational Transference (GT) Leaders” document, or ask Pastor Nate.
- We require leaders to set the example by being in God’s Word, having an active prayer life, serving others, regularly attending Hillside’s Sunday morning services, and growing in their faith.

(We understand that situations arise throughout the year that hinders your ability to attend certain gatherings or events; therefore, we simply ask that proper notice is given to Pastor Nate Hercula.)

Thank you for taking the time to fill out this application, and for showing interest in investing in the lives of students. Youth ministry is vital to advancing the kingdom of God and I am thrilled that God has placed the desire upon your heart to help and see students learn to know God, serve others, and grow within the Community of Christ. We will be touching base with you shortly to talk over this application in person, and to discuss your involvement with the youth ministry here at Hillside.

Blessings,

Pastor Nate
